

Directions to Casa Paraiso Casa #611

Directions from the Canal Zone area (Clayton) to Paraiso.

Public · 0 views

Created on Jul 17 · By · Updated < 1 minute ago

Casa Paraiso #611

Casa Paraiso International Missions Base and The Cotton Family's Home (Located in the back)

Line 1

Line 2

Route #2 to Casa Paraiso

Route #1

Follow Omar Torrijos past Clayton and Pedro Miguel over the train tracks. Keep going straight past 1st entrance to Paraiso and go up the hill past the French Cementery. At Top of the Hill, turn left into Paraiso (Baptist Church on the Corner). Go to the bottom of the hill and take a right after the 2nd speed bump. Then go up the hill about 100 yards and Casa Paraiso #611 is on your right. It is a 2 story wooden building on top and cement on the bottom. The front door is red. The property is surrounded by bamboo. Park on the right side of the grass block parking area or on the side of the street. The Cotton's house is all the way in the back. Delivery trucks can take the driveway to the back to drop things off.

Route #2 Take the Via Centenario towards the Centenario Bridge (La Chorrera). Just before the bridge, take the Paraiso Exit. At the bottom of the exit road, bare to the left and cross over the road to make a left hand turn under the overpass. Head down the hill and take your first right into Paraiso. (Baptist Church on the Corner). Go to the bottom of the hill and take a right after the 2nd speed bump. Then go up the hill about 100 yards and Casa Paraiso #611 is on your right. It is a 2 story wooden building on top and cement on the bottom. The front door is red. The property is surrounded by bamboo. Park on the right side of the grass block parking area or on the side of the street. The Cotton's house is all the way in the back. Delivery trucks can take the driveway to the back to drop things off.